

What Is Ruritan?

Ruritan National has nearly 26,000 members throughout the United States that work to improve more than 1,000 local communities. Since the organization's beginning in 1928, Ruritan Clubs have served America with Fellowship, Goodwill, and Community Service. Ruritan is a civic service organization made up of local clubs in urban areas, small towns, and rural communities.

Ruritan's purpose is to create a better understanding among people through volunteer community service. Ruritans make America's communities better places in which to live and work. The slogan of Ruritan is "Fellowship, Goodwill, and Community Service." Club membership represents a cross-section of the community in which the club serves and is not restrictive with regard to occupation, social position, or any other specific criteria.

Unlike most civic service organizations, Ruritan rarely has national programs. Rather, each club surveys its own community as to the needs of their area and then works to meet some of those needs.

Ruritan clubs work locally with:

- FFA,
- 4-H,
- Scout programs,
- recreational activities,
- athletic programs,
- environmental programs,
- senior citizens,
- youth, and
- others in need.

Ruritans perform a wide range of services to help their communities.

Ask a Ruritan in your community about becoming an Associate Member

I'd love to be an active Ruritan member but...

My business keeps me too busy to regularly attend meetings ...

I live too far away from the closest Ruritan Club ...

My family obligations are too demanding right now ...

Did you know you can STILL be a Ruritan?
You can be an Associate Member!
